Dueling Dragon Karate Competition Rules

For weapons

2-minute timed rounds, judged on footwork, power, balance

For Forms

2 minutes timed round, judged on footwork, stances, kicks, head movement. If Black Belts restart the form, then lose ½ of point from the center judge only. Deviation rule will be followed: All scores must be within +/- 0.2 points of the center score, not the center judge. Make sure the scorekeeper starts the time. If there is a tie then the winner will be decided by all three judges via call out.

For Fighting - 2-minute matches – Make sure all equipment fits and is in good condition. All shoes for sparring must cover the full foot must be karate shoe or foam boot. No tape or any rip shoes or any modifications.

All competitors must confirm they have mouthguards and groin protectors for males to the judges prior to the start of the division.

For all under belts matches go to 7. Only one controlled head shot may be made for 3 points per match per competitor except for advanced divisions, where two headshots per match for 3 points allowed with kicks only. If sudden death a third head shot for 3 points is allowed. Advanced divisions must win by 2 points.

Black Belt matches go to 10 and must win by 2 points. Unlimited controlled head shots are allowed during the match.

For children – contact does not need to be made: 2 inches from the body allowed for points.

Each match is 2 minutes, whoever is up at the end of time will win if no one achieves 7 points

A tie will be decided by sudden death

A kick to the body is 2 points, a kick to the head is 3 points, A punch is 1 point.

One challenge per match will be allowed.

Warnings during sparring matches

Low Kick, excessive contact, stepping out of the ring

– 1st time a warning

– 2nd time point given to opponent

– 3rd time point given to opponent

Excessive contact is decided by all judges.

One ten second time out per match is allowed.

For Belt Sparring – 2 minute matches – headgear is required. Matches will go to 5 points. There is no punching or kicking allowed, only grabbing the flags. Each flag is worth 1 point.

All disqualifications are decided by the arbitrator only.

Any parent coaching will be held accountable for any arguing with the judges, using bad language, or using nag coaching. Parents must also stand on the tape mark on the floor to coach their child. 1 warning will be issued to a parent / coach for violating the rules, after that a point will be awarded to the other side.
